Idaho Department of Labor

The Idaho Department of Labor offers programs and assistance to those seeking jobs throughout Idaho. Offices are located statewide and provide the following services:

- Job search assistance search tips and creating resumes.
- Job market information.
- Job search workshops and networking opportunities.
- Computers and online access for employment-related needs.
- Carreer guidance and assessments.
- Career training.
- Applying for unemployment insurance benefits.
- Specialized services for vetrans, youth, adults, seniors, and persons with criminal records.
- Connections to many other community and government resources.

The Idaho Department of Labor has offices throughout the state. Their Calendar of Events provides a listing of all programs that are offered. Events are offered statewide and in an office close to you.