CHAPTER 1 – GENERAL MATTERS

Section 1.01 Purpose

The United States District and Bankruptcy Court has adopted this Attorney Admissions Fund Plan (the Plan) for the District of Idaho. The purpose of the Plan is to provide guidance for receipting, depositing, disbursing, and accounting for monies maintained in the Court's Non-Appropriated Fund (the Fund). This Plan supersedes the plans adopted in General Order 185.

Section 1.02 Sources of Revenue

- (a) Excess Attorney Admissions Fees: Pursuant to District Court Local Rule 83.4(f) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 9010.1(a) attorneys applying for admission to this Court will be required to pay a prescribed fee, in excess of the basic fee set by the Judicial Conference of the United States. This excess amount will be collected, deposited, and maintained by the Clerk of Court (hereinafter referred to as the Custodian of the Fund) as part of the Fund.
- (b) Pro Hac Vice Fees: Pursuant to District Court Local Rule 83.4(f) and Local Bankruptcy Rule 9010.1(d), attorneys applying for Pro Hac Vice admission to this Court will be required to pay a prescribed fee. This amount will be collected, deposited, and maintained by the Custodian of the Fund as part of the Fund.
- (c) Other Sources of Income: The only other source of income for the Fund is any interest income accrued on the Attorney Admission fees.
- (d) The details of how the Attorney Admission and Pro Hac Vice fees will be distributed between the General Fund Receipt account, the special Filing Fee Judiciary Fund established under 28 U.S.C 1914, and the Non-Appropriated fund will be set forth in a separate general order.

Section 1.03 Constraints on the Use of Attorney Admission Fund Monies

The following guidelines and principles apply to the administration of the Fund:

- (a) Receipt and Deposit of Monies: The Custodian of the Fund will receipt, deposit, and account for monies according to fiscal and accounting principles established in the most current version of the Attorney Admission Fund Guidelines (the Guidelines) adopted by the Judicial Conference of the United States (see the Guide to Judiciary Policy, hereinafter referred to as the Guide).
- (b) Limitations on Deposits: (1) The Custodian of the Fund shall deposit all monies of the Fund only in federally insured banks or savings institutions. Whenever practical and feasible, all substantial sums should be deposited in interest-bearing accounts, government securities, or money market funds invested in government obligations, at the direction of the Board of Judges and Lawyer Representatives (hereinafter referred to as the Advisory Committee). (2) The Court shall avoid an unreasonable accumulation of attorney admission fees.

- (c) Separation of Fund Receipts from Other Judiciary Accounts: Attorney admission funds shall be segregated from all other monies held in the custody of the Court.
- (d) Authorized Expenditures: Expenditures from the Fund are to be used for the benefit of the bench and bar in the administration of justice. Any judge or Advisory Committee member may make recommendations for expenditures from the Fund on application to the Custodian of the Fund.

After considering the recommendations of the Advisory Committee or other judges, the Chief District Judge must enter an order authorizing all expenditures, except as provided in Section 2.02 "Pro Bono Expenses."

(e) Limitations on Expenditures:

- (1) The Fund shall not be used to pay for goods or services for which appropriated funds may be legally used, even if the appropriated funds are exhausted or otherwise not available. Use of the Fund for any purpose for which appropriated funds may be legally used constitutes an impermissible augmentation of appropriations.

Exception for overtime utilities for unofficial court functions:

Notwithstanding the rule against augmentation, the Fund may be used to pay for overtime utilities for unofficial court functions noted in Section 2.01.

- (2) The Fund shall not be used to supplement the salary of any court officer or employee, or other government official, or to provide a personal benefit to any judge or court employee, or his or her family member. A limited exception exists for the receipt of a de minimis personal benefit incidental to a proper expenditure from the Fund, e.g., meals, refreshments or hospitality items provided under section 2.01 of the Guide.
- (3) The Fund shall not be used to pay for official or personal travel by a judge or court employee or by his or her family member. A limited exception exists that allows the Fund to be used to pay for local transportation of a judge or court employee to attend bench/bar events.
- (4) The Fund shall not be used to provide continuing legal education for any judge or employee of the Court.
- (5) The Fund shall not be used to pay for the printing of local rules.

CHAPTER 2 – AUTHORIZED USES OF THE FUND

Section 2.01 Authorized Expenditures

The District Court and Bankruptcy Court shall use the Fund only for purposes to the benefit of the members of the bench and the bar in the administration of justice. Subject to the provisions of Section 1.03, examples of proper common uses of the Fund include but are not limited to the following activities:

- (a) Ceremonies and Awards: Expenses incurred for Attorney Admission ceremonies, Naturalization ceremonies, Interpreter testing and certification, as well as other ceremonial occasions. Awards for lawyer representatives.

- (f) Judicial Conference Expenses: Reimbursement to lawyer representatives for attendance at Judicial Conferences and other meetings scheduled by District of Idaho or the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals.
- (g) Court Ceremonies: Including expenses relating to judicial investitures, retirements, memorial or historical occasions, or other appropriate judicial or court-related proceedings advised and recommended by the Advisory Committee, but only for expenses for which appropriated funds may not be used.

If the case appears to have extraordinary need, and more than $1,500 in costs is anticipated and warranted, then pro bono counsel may request additional funds on the budget sheet, with a detailed explanation of why the additional costs are warranted, in advance of the expense being incurred. The cost fund covers out-of-pocket expenses such as process services, filing fees, expert consultations, witness fees, interpreter services, photographs, deposition costs, and other similar items. The cost fund does not cover copying services, internal photocopying or printing, or attorney fees.
- (p) Other Authorized Purpose: Any other purpose for which appropriated funds may not legally be used that will benefit the bench and the bar in the administration of justice and that receives the approval of the Advisory Committee.

Section 2.02 Pro Bono Expenses

In order to assist in the administration of justice, the Court authorizes funding for litigation costs incurred by attorneys, legal clinics, and law students appointed pursuant to the Pro Bono Program. Funds for the Program are allocated from the District's non-appropriated fund (attorney admission fund). The amount appropriated will not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the annual receipts, unless authorized by the Board of Judges and the Court's Lawyer Representatives. Continued funding each year is subject to their annual review and approval.

Pro Bono Program funds may be used for training of pro bono attorneys, reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred by pro bono mediators or judges, or for other purposes that the Court determines will enhance the goal of creating, supporting, and maintaining the Program. Such reimbursement shall be administered consistent with General Order 261, adopted on January 18, 2012, or as amended.
